ORANGE COUNTY IS REPORTING AN INFESTATION OF WORMMIES

It is being reported that there has been an infestation of wormmies in Orange County. The county's inspectors have narrowed it down to the home of Patty Berge where the infestation is now known to have originated. These wormmies are known to put a big smile on your face. Please see photo taken of some of the colors that the now famous wormmies found at Patty's home come in.
